NOTABLE CHANGES PROMISED BY TRUST.

Short-handed Plants to Resume with a Full Force—Star Mill to Be Kept Going.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—Some remarkable changes in the conditions of the strike-ridden mills of the United States Steel Corporation are promised for the present week that will change the aspect of affairs considerably, if carried out. It was stated on good authority today, the day before the end of the week, that those of the plants that have been operating on a single turn would be run with full force, and for the usual three full turns each day. Men engaged have been secured for this purpose, the officials say. In spite of the claims of the strikers that the companies could not get enough men to operate their plants, and the managers of the various mills say they will be ready with all the skilled men required to start up the machinery and turn out a heavy tonnage.

The most interesting situation is in the Star mill of the American Tin Plate Company here. This plant was, until this summer, considered as doomed. The tin-plate company had, it is said, decided to abandon the mill and move the machinery elsewhere. Since the strike has come on them, and it was demonstrated that the operation of the mill with non-union men was possible under the protection of a well-equipped police force, the officials decided to keep this mill going, make extensive improvements in its equipment, and make it a permanent feature of the company.

The most significant feature of this plan has been carried out during the past week. This consists of fitting the mill in the same manner that the Monessen (Pa.) plant. The former eight mills have been changed to four double mills. Other improvements have been added that will give the plant a large capacity, increase its force of men, and make it one of the most modern of all the tin plants of the country.

With the completion of these improvements, the company will be prepared to place a sufficient number of men in the plant to work the four double mills three full turns. This is said to be expected to take place during the week.

The mills, Piper said: "We received eight skilled men early this morning. J. R. Phillips of the company accompanied them to the mill, and it was not until after they were in and comfortably settled for the night that the strikers discovered their presence. These men are of the best in the trade, and will enable us to place the plant on a better basis than before."

Outside of the Star plant today, a large number of strikers were on picket duty. They were quiet and orderly, but had their eyes and ears open for any signs of newcomers. The peculiar feature of the strike today, the Star plant is the good feeling displayed between the strikers and the manager of the plant.

When the strikers were told of the claims of the officers of the Star mill, they denied that there were as many skilled men at work as was claimed, and said those who were in the plant were sent there from the Monessen plant, which was being crippled in order to accomplish this work. Strenuous denials were also made regarding alleged desertions from the Amalgamated ranks to fill the positions of the corporation, and it was said that it would be impossible to obtain men enough to operate the plant without settling the strike.

There was no change in the situation regarding the tube mills today. The mills were all quiet, and the former employees remained away from the plants. It is understood that the ance of strict observance of wage agreements, as contracts, by the labor unions. President Shaffer maintained his position to the satisfaction of most of the conferees. It has been reported that the conferees disapproved the move in abrogating the Federal Steel Company contracts, and told President Shaffer so with unmistakable emphasis. This, however, Secretary John Williams said today that during the conference he had heard no adverse criticism by the Civic Federation conferees on the attitude of President Shaffer in this matter of contracts.

BARTENDERS TO DRIVE CASH REGISTERS OUT.

CONCERTED PLAN TO END THE OHIO COMPANY'S LOCKOUT.

Announcement Made at Chicago That on a Certain Day All Such Machines in Union Saloons in Large Cities Will Get Out of Repair.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "On a certain day all cash registers in union saloons in the large cities will suddenly get out of order and continue to get out of order until they are taken away. This announcement was made by delegates from the Bartenders' National Union at a meeting of the Central Federated Unions today."

Ten thousand bartenders throughout the country have decided on a fight against the National Cash Register Company at Dayton, O., in aid of the International Association of Metal Polishers, Buffers and Platers. The members of which have been locked out by the company.

"We think we can drive the larger part of the cash registers of this company out of the saloons," declared the bartenders, "and by this method help to settle the trouble."

STRIKERS FIGHT INJUNCTION.

EX-GOV. ALTMAN EMPLOYED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Striking machinists of the Allis-Chalmers and the Gates Iron works continued picketing the plants today, despite the temporary injunction issued by Judge Kohlsaat. It is rumored that five important machinists who ventured outside the plant were seized and severely beaten by the friends of the strikers.

Former Gov. J. P. Altman has been asked to fight the injunction on the part of the strikers.

SOUTH CHICAGO AGITATION.

VESSELS LEAVING WITH FULL CARGOES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The opening of the sixth week of the strike tomorrow will find very little change in the situation, both sides remaining firm, and all attempts at arbitration having failed. The Executive Committee of the City Front Federation held a short session today, at which it was tacitly agreed to have a general parade of workingmen Labor day.

On the water front considerable work was done today. The steamer Santa Rosa got away on time for southern ports. The Pomona also left, and the Gypsy and City of Puebla arrived. All the vessels have full cargoes. The ship Tasmania sailed with a load of wheat, being the first grain vessel to leave here since July 24.

No serious disturbances occurred today, though several cases of attacks on non-union men were reported to the police.

Joseph Bennett, a teamster, was attacked by four men early this morning. His right leg was broken, and he was severely beaten about the head and face.

A Japanese waiter on the steamer Casio was stopped this morning and badly beaten.

Lawrence Wallace, a waiter, was beaten and kicked.

Noles Figured Upon Going to Glory.

Mob Made This World Too Hot for Him.

Negro Taken from Jail and Burned at Stake.

He Said He Killed Mrs. Williams as 'He'd Nothing Else to Do.'

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] HATTANOOGA (Tenn.) Aug. 25.—Henry Noles, the negro who criminally assaulted and shot to death Mrs. Charles Williams, wife of a prominent farmer near Winchester, Tenn., last Friday, was captured early this morning at a water tank near Coan, Tenn. He was taken to Winchester by his captors and placed in the County Jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to try him, and he was hanged at the gallows at 10 o'clock.

Soon an angry mob of several hundred men gathered about Asst. Atty.-Gen. M. M. Whittaker, who appeared and made a speech to the crowd. He appealed to them to assist him in allaying excitement and upholding the majesty of the law. He promised to reconvene the grand jury tomorrow to promptly indict the negro, and have him speedily tried at the present term of court, assuring the crowd that his conviction and legal execution was a foregone conclusion. This appeal was supplemented by Judge Lynch, Capt. Tolley, J. M. Littleton and others.

No sooner had their appeals been made, than a mob of hundreds of citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed, augmented the crowd to thousands. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies, took the prisoner and twelve miles distant, at 10:15 o'clock a.m.

The mob was orderly, but determined. It seemed that the whole population for miles around had turned out to see the execution.

Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime, the negro was placed upon a stump and given a chance to make a statement. He mounted the stump stolidly, and laughed when he began his statement. He said: "Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home. Tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

He was then asked as to whether any one else was implicated in the crime. Noles stated emphatically that there was no one implicated but himself.

"Why did you kill Mrs. Williams?" he was asked.

"Just done that because I had nothing else to do."

He finished his statement at 1:35 o'clock p.m. He was taken from the stump, carried to a tree near by, bound to the tree by chains, and his body saturated with oil.

At 5:15 o'clock p.m. a match was applied, and instantly the quivering body was enveloped in flames. The rails were piled about the burning body, and soon life was extinct. The negro made no outcry at any time, and died a stolid as the scene of the crime. No disorderly scenes about the burning body. At least 6000 people witnessed the horrible fate of the negro. Many remained until midnight, auguring a bias until the body was entirely consumed. Then they departed for their homes quietly.

HIS HORRIBLE CRIME.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] CATTANOOGA, Aug. 25.—Lying on the floor of the family room, her face splashed with clotted blood, and the planks stained with the same, Charles Williams found his devoted wife, Friday afternoon, when he returned from marketing his wheat in the little town of Winchester. A heavy bullet had gone through her head, and she was extinct, and her two baby children were crying alone in their grief and fear.

The oldest boy, aged 5, told what had occurred. The young mother had been shot and killed by Henry Noles, a negro hand upon Williams' place. As the mortally wounded woman sank to the floor, Noles sat at the boy, the bullet grazing the child's head. Then he fled to the woods. The motive, it is believed, was robbery, and $20 was obtained by the assassin.

Williams is a farmer, well-to-do, and one of the most prominent residents of his section of Franklin county. The dead woman was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in the country.

SOUTH CAMDEN EXCITED.

NEGROES' HOUSES ATTACKED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—South Camden, N. J., was the scene of trouble between negroes and whites last night. The affair might almost be termed a riot, and reports exaggerating the offense being spread, the white people in the neighborhood became excited.

A mob formed, and the houses of a number of negroes were entered, doors being broken in amid great confusion and much noise. Threats were made that all negroes should be driven from the place. The police were called out and the rioters were dispersed. A

MACK GOT HIS BACK UP AGAINST GORMAN.

ALL ABOUT WHERE DEMOCRACY IS GOING TO STAND.

Maryland Senator Said the Bryan Fellows Are Coming Back to Their Ancient Moorings and That Set the Buffalo Man A-roaring.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senator special says Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland and Hon. Norman E. Mack of Buffalo met this afternoon at the United States Hotel at Saratoga, and talked politics. The meeting was by chance, and the talk was chance talk, but each gentleman found it convenient to express himself with considerable frankness. Mack remarked:

"I see by the papers, Senator, that you're looking after your fences in Maryland, and making some midsummer plans for the fall campaign."

"You must not believe all you read in the papers, Mack," the ex-Senator replied, "but I'm glad to be able to tell you that Maryland Democrats are getting together, and that old differences are being forgotten. But we're doing no more than Democrats all over the country are doing. It's a general getting together, Mack, and unless something unforeseen happens, we'll stand a mighty good chance of winning in 1904. At any rate, we'll win the certainty in 1908. You Bryan fellows are coming back to your ancient moorings, and soon the Democracy of the nation will be standing on a platform somewhat different from that manifested at Chicago."

"The devil it will," Mack replied. "Let me tell you, Senator Gorman, that it's you and your type of Democrat that's outside the breakwaters. The Chicago platform was built to stand wear and tear, and it will endure. When you and your friends get ready to take your stand on that platform, the Democracy of the nation will be united, and not before. If you're not with the rank and file in 1904, I will be, and your friends who will be regarded as deserters."

"Don't talk to me about Bryan men 'getting back,' and 'coming around,' and all that. You'll do the coming, sir, and if you want to see us, you know where our office is."

The more the Buffalo statesman talked the more vehement he seemed to get to those who were sitting near by. As he grew more earnest, Senator Gorman began to smile, and when Mack had delivered himself, he said, in that soft, soothing way of his: "Let's walk down to the spring, Mr. Mack."

WHAT IF AMERICA SHOULD OBJECT?

KARL RUSSELL MAY BECOME AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

Thinks of Settling Down in Nevada After His Release From Holloway Jail—It All Depends Upon What the Countess Says.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LONDON, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Karl Russell, who is now in Holloway jail, where he was sent by the House of Lords for bigamy, will probably return to Nevada upon his release, and become an American citizen.

The present Countess, formerly Mollie Cooke of Nevada, said today that her husband's time expires on October 1, but she is using every endeavor to get him out earlier. His health has been considerably affected, as he has only an hour of exercise daily with other prisoners. Then follow ten hours of solitary confinement.

"My husband is willing to surrender his English citizenship and interests to become an American citizen, if he is necessary," said the Countess. "He has left the decision entirely to me. Friends ask why I should exile myself in America. That has no weight. It is only the thought of asking such a great sacrifice of interests from my husband that deter me from instantly deciding in favor of America."

Should Karl Russell become an American citizen, he would be obliged to renounce his English title. However, such renunciation would have no effect, as English law does not admit the right of a peer to renounce his peerage, and either he or his son, or his grandson or great-grandson, would still have the right to a seat in the House of Lords at any time he might choose to claim it.

PETITION DENIED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LONDON, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A petition for the release of Karl Russell, who was recently sentenced for bigamy, was signed by 500 men and women, and in addition there was presented to the Home Secretary a statement signed by three doctors, favoring the release of the prisoner on the ground that the imprisonment was injuring his health.

Mollie Cooke, whom he married in Nevada, which marriage led to his trial and conviction for bigamy, has written to the newspapers, saying that the Home Secretary, in refusing to grant a petition for the Earl's release, said that there was nothing in the present state of his health to justify a pardon. The latter of the "bigamy" which is long and reprehensible, among the government doctors, is now being sent to the Earl for a full examination of his health. Some of the doctors said they did not take his temperature or his pulse. She proceeds:

"I have discovered that the sentence was all out and dried before trial. The governor of the jail was instructed as to the time when he was to come to the House of Lords for the prisoner, and a room had previously been prepared for him in jail. The trial was so hurried that no extenuating evidence was allowed to be given. Some of the Lords have complained since that they were rushed. I have expert information from America as to the validity of our Nevada marriage, which, if the government had allowed us time to produce, would have given the noble Lords courage to say one word in favor of a man who is persecuted because he preferred a wife to a mistress."

Paris Stage and Falls Backward Dead.
Graduate of Conservatory.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PARIS, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Stage-fright killed Louis Maniera, a young Parisienne who was making her debut as an actress at the Theatre de la Renaissance, after having won honors at the National Dramatic Conservatory.

She had played distractedly, and her performance had so frightened her that she could hardly produce a sound. At the end of the first act, her associates found her pale and exhausted, and tried to give her encouragement to go on for the second act. As she went to make an entrance, her heart fluttered wildly, and the stage physician advised against her continuing, but the girl, unwilling to embarrass the company, gave a lurch and went on, simply saying: "I am unwell, but I will continue, and will abandon the stage forever."

During the second act she forgot her lines, and the audience was painfully conscious of the awful struggle the young actress was making to spur her memory. Presently the spectators saw her fall backward dead. After the post-mortem examination, the doctors said she was killed by a stroke of excessive emotion.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Aug. 25.—Commanderies of Knights Templars arrived in Louisville today and tonight from the four corners of the United States. The city is rapidly filling with its pilgrims, although the triennial convocation proper does not begin until the parade starts Tuesday morning. Imposing religious exercises were held this afternoon. This was the only formal event today. At 1 o'clock p. m. the Knights assembled at their various headquarters and at 3 o'clock marched to the Galt House, where the general formation was made for the march to the Broadway Methodist Church, where the services were held at 3 o'clock p. m. Lloyd, and the other grand officers.

The ground floor of the church was reserved for Knights Templars in full uniform. The ground floor of the Sun-Ed School room was reserved for ladies of visiting Knights, and for the Knights in uniform accompanied by ladies. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—Director of Works Taylor of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition said today that the ground plan for the exposition is practically complete, and that no time would be lost in submitting them to the Executive Committee for formal approval. "The plan upon which we have agreed," Taylor said, "is absolutely novel, and will present to the visitors something which has never been seen."

Too Much Guard Duty for the Present Force—Discontent with Land Tax.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
MANILA, Aug. 25.—[By Manila Cable.] Word was received today that the insurgent colonel, Lorel, with seven officers and thirteen men, surrendered yesterday to Capt. Brown of the Fourth Infantry at Talia. The surrender of numerous other smaller contingents last week brings the total to more than 100.

Gov. Taft is expected to return to Manila after a brief tour of inspection of civil officials throughout all Northern Luzon. In the city of Manila there are now less than 1000 active soldiers, and it has been decided to increase this number by four companies of Infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force. As a matter of fact, however, there is a feeling that the surrender of numerous other smaller contingents last week brings the total to more than 100.

PETITION DENIED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LONDON, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A petition for the release of Karl Russell, who was recently sentenced for bigamy, was signed by 500 men and women, and in addition there was presented to the Home Secretary a statement signed by three doctors, favoring the release of the prisoner on the ground that the imprisonment was injuring his health.

Mollie Cooke, whom he married in Nevada, which marriage led to his trial and conviction for bigamy, has written to the newspapers, saying that the Home Secretary, in refusing to grant a petition for the Earl's release, said that there was nothing in the present state of his health to justify a pardon. The latter of the "bigamy" which is long and reprehensible, among the government doctors, is now being sent to the Earl for a full examination of his health. Some of the doctors said they did not take his temperature or his pulse. She proceeds:

"I have discovered that the sentence was all out and dried before trial. The governor of the jail was instructed as to the time when he was to come to the House of Lords for the prisoner, and a room had previously been prepared for him in jail. The trial was so hurried that no extenuating evidence was allowed to be given. Some of the Lords have complained since that they were rushed. I have expert information from America as to the validity of our Nevada marriage, which, if the government had allowed us time to produce, would have given the noble Lords courage to say one word in favor of a man who is persecuted because he preferred a wife to a mistress."

PARIS, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Stage-fright killed Louis Maniera, a young Parisienne who was making her debut as an actress at the Theatre de la Renaissance, after having won honors at the National Dramatic Conservatory.

She had played distractedly, and her performance had so frightened her that she could hardly produce a sound. At the end of the first act, her associates found her pale and exhausted, and tried to give her encouragement to go on for the second act. As she went to make an entrance, her heart fluttered wildly, and the stage physician advised against her continuing, but the girl, unwilling to embarrass the company, gave a lurch and went on, simply saying: "I am unwell, but I will continue, and will abandon the stage forever."

During the second act she forgot her lines, and the audience was painfully conscious of the awful struggle the young actress was making to spur her memory. Presently the spectators saw her fall backward dead. After the post-mortem examination, the doctors said she was killed by a stroke of excessive emotion.

PLAIN MATTER OF BUSINESS.

Strong Influence is at Work in Market.

Community of Interests May Not Suffer.

Labor Unions' Guarantees of Observance of Contracts a New Possibility.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's business review says that at the close of last week the market for securities presented unmistakable indications that two or three important interests had decided to endeavor to stimulate public interest in current speculation. The movement was most pronounced in Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Atchafalpa, St. Paul and United States Steel stocks. Considerable interest was also developed in the shares of companies comprising the Gould system, and in those included in the Anthracite coal group.

The stocks that have been named furnish distinct clues to interests that have taken the market in hand. They have been successful in driving prices thus far, because stocks that were thrown over last month, in consequence of the steel strike and alarm created by damage to the corn crop, appear to have been absorbed much more readily than is usually the case after such decided action, which while took place last month. The reason for this, without doubt, the great increase in the wealth of the country, together with confidence that the prosperity of the last two or three years has not yet run its course.

Other important considerations that have unquestionably influenced certain banking interests and operators to engage in a bull campaign at this time are the ease of the money market and the prospects that it will continue so for some time to come, satisfactory railway returns, considerable improvement in the crop situation, and indications that the present improvement in the stock market will not only settle, for a long time to come the issue that the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers originally stated in a bull campaign at this time after to exact from labor organizations substantial guarantees that they will fulfill the contracts which they make in behalf of their members.

Orange County Towns: Santa Ana, Fullerton and Orange.

BIG YIELD OF GRAIN IN ORANGE COUNTY.

THRASHING BEING RUSHED AND WORKMEN ARE IN DEMAND.

Barley Crop Average from Fourteen to Twenty Sacks to the Acre—Property Transferred to the State for Delinquent Taxes.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 23.—[From The Times Resident Correspondent.] One of Orange county's largest industries is grain raising, and nowhere in the county is this conducted on a larger scale than on the great San Joaquin ranch, where this year about twenty thousand acres of barley have just been harvested, and perhaps half as many more acres of wheat. In years past some of the more tardy ranchers have been inconvenienced considerably, and, in fact, suffered some loss on account of the early rains, and hoping to profit by their past experience, the thrashing season is being rushed. Right now there is a demand for all laborers applying for work, and in several instances it has been difficult to secure a sufficient number of men to man the various thrashing outfits at work on the ranch.

The yield of barley this year, on the average, has been good, notwithstanding the fact that during the spring months the ranchers believed they would not get half a crop. On the San Joaquin ranch the yield will average about fourteen sacks per acre, while a portion of the ranch has gone as high as twenty-two sacks. In the El Toro district the yield is good, much better than was anticipated earlier in the season, some of the fields going as high as eighteen sacks per acre.

STATE ACQUIRES TITLE. County Recorder Scott yesterday forwarded to the State Comptroller seventy-eight deeds to property in this county, which has lapsed into the hands of the State through the failure of the owners to pay taxes upon it during the past five years. These deeds were largely to town lots in the "boom" towns of Carlton, and other pieces of property which were apparently valueless to the owners. Any one who wishes to regain possession of this land must now signify intention to the State Comptroller, who advertises a date of public auction, when the property will be disposed of to the highest bidder.

AFTER BIG GAME. M. M. Crookshank, John Cubbon, Mort Hubbard and John McFadden, all of this city, will leave tomorrow for Tulare county in search of "bats." The party will go to the vicinity of Mt. Whitney, at an elevation of about 10,000 feet, near the scene of their campaign a year ago, when they bagged eight fine specimens of the bear tribe. The trip is tedious, much of the distance from the nearest railway station having to be made by pack train.

V. company's district and water could not be delivered to him without changing the company's charter and corporation, and the matter will not be brought up at the next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaheim and Fullerton company at its annual meeting which will be held early next year. It is believed as soon as this matter is signed up with Irvine, it will sooner or later end a lot of expensive litigation between the two water companies and the Newberry people, as it is reported that the latter named syndicate has figured all the time on disposing of any water it might develop to Mr. Irvine. The two water companies believe they could win the suit now pending in the end, but the part of the non-resident Santa Ana Valley Company, hoping that the matter will not have to be fought out in the courts, thus avoiding the expense of a long and bitter litigation, the Newberry scheme of development is being carried out in the courts for settlement.

ORANGE. OWNERS MUST FUMIGATE. ORANGE, Aug. 23.—[From The Times Correspondent.] A number of ranches in this vicinity are owned by residents of Los Angeles, and for some reason there has been an apparent neglect to fumigate the orchards. Horticultural Commissioner Huntington has observed these conditions, and he proposes to see that the non-residents free their trees from scale and other insect pests. With this in view Mr. Huntington has made a trip to Los Angeles to serve notice on such owners of orchards in this vicinity that their orchards must be fumigated.
